

SPECIAL REVIEW OF CINCINNATI BUSINESS

Concerns Held to be Friendly to the Cause of Organized Labor

U. S. OVERALL AND PANTS MANUFACTURING COMPANY.

The U. S. Overall and Pants Manufacturing Company, located at 422 Pioneer street, is one of the foremost business institutions of our city, and in their chosen line of endeavor, stand second to none. Overalls or pants bearing the "U. S." trade mark can always be depended upon to be the best that money can buy, and to give universal satisfaction to all who wear them. They are made here in Cincinnati, and are eminently deserving of the patronage of Cincinnati's union men, as the management of this company has at all times maintained a very friendly attitude toward the just cause of labor. The managers moreover, are courteous gentlemen, treating all with whom they come in contact in a polite and courteous manner. They deserve commendation for the manner in which they treat their employees, according to every consideration at all times. Union men will make no mistake, when purchasing overalls, by demanding the product of the U. S. Overall and Pants Manufacturing Company, as you are not only assured of getting the best, but are also supporting a firm friendly to labor's just cause.

VOEGTLE BROTHERS.

Those people who have had dealings with this concern are all loud in their praise of good treatment received at their hands, and of the high quality of goods carried by them. Voegtle Brothers are dealers in fresh and smoked meats, poultry, staple and fancy groceries and fresh produce. Their food stuffs are the best on the market, and their prices are as low as can be made consistent with good business principles. They conduct an automobile delivery service that is par-excellent, and have your order to you at almost any time you want it. This enterprising firm is located at 1825 Baymiller; phone West 129. The managers make it a part of their business to extend courtesy and good treatment to their customers and employees alike, and in this connection, as well as in a business way, have won an enviable reputation. They have always been staunch friends of organized labor, and we take pleasure in recommending them to our readers.

EAGLE-PICHER LEAD COMPANY.

Among the many well-known firms of Cincinnati who deserve especial mention among the friends of labor, none are more worthy than the Eagle-Picher Lead Company. This concern is one of the foremost manufacturers of white lead in oils, plumbers lead goods, and, in fact, a full line of leads, in the country, and is an industry of which Cincinnati may well be proud. They stand amongst the foremost business institutions of our city and are known to be of sterling worth. The managers are courteous gentlemen, treating all with whom they come in contact in a polite, respectful manner. They rank high among our city's foremost, progressive business men, always ready and willing to lend their assistance to anything that is for the betterment of Cincinnati, or the people with whom they are thrown in contact.

The Eagle-Picher Lead Company are the manufacturers of the well-known "EAGLE BRAND" of pure lead products, making leads for every purpose. Their products are the best on the market, and can be depended upon to satisfactorily fulfill the purpose for which they are intended at all times.

The managers of this company have always been staunch friends of organized labor, and union men will find them friendly at all times. The hosts of labor should show their appreciation of these facts by demanding "EAGLE BRAND" whenever in need of anything in the line manufactured by this company.

STACEY AUCTION AND STORAGE COMPANY.

There is no concern that stands higher in the esteem of the people of Cincinnati than does this one. This enviable reputation and position has been won by their never failing fair dealing, which has been accorded alike to both employees and customers. The managers are courteous gentlemen, always treating those with whom they come in contact in a polite, respectful manner. The Stacey Auction and Storage Company is one of the foremost business institutions of its kind in our city, having built up a handsome business of which Cincinnati may well be proud. They are dealers in new and antique furniture of the very best and highest grade, holding auction sales daily at 10 a. m., offering the people of Cincinnati unexcelled opportunities to purchase the best of long desired furnishings at the lowest prices. The Stacey Company also operate a large and absolutely fireproof warehouse and safe deposit vault for silverware or other valuables, pack and store furniture and are especially expert movers. If you are thinking of moving, it will be to your advantage in every way to consult the Stacey Storage and Auction Company, as they employ experts in this line, and do all the work for you, taking the responsibility and worry entirely away from the mover. Their service is unexcelled, and their charges are always reasonable. Their office and sales rooms are located at 2335 Gilbert avenue, where they are at all times ready and anxious to serve the public in a just and equitable manner. The attitude of this firm toward organized labor has ever been friendly, and we are pleased to say a good word for them in this Labor Review.

fering the people of Cincinnati unexcelled opportunities to purchase the best of long desired furnishings at the lowest prices. The Stacey Company also operate a large and absolutely fireproof warehouse and safe deposit vault for silverware or other valuables, pack and store furniture and are especially expert movers. If you are thinking of moving, it will be to your advantage in every way to consult the Stacey Storage and Auction Company, as they employ experts in this line, and do all the work for you, taking the responsibility and worry entirely away from the mover. Their service is unexcelled, and their charges are always reasonable. Their office and sales rooms are located at 2335 Gilbert avenue, where they are at all times ready and anxious to serve the public in a just and equitable manner. The attitude of this firm toward organized labor has ever been friendly, and we are pleased to say a good word for them in this Labor Review.

LOHREY PACKING COMPANY.

Among the many reputable business concerns of Cincinnati that are known to be of sterling worth, none have a higher standing than does the Lohrey Packing Company. This enviable reputation and position has been won by their never-failing fair dealings, which has been accorded alike to both employees and customers. In their chosen line of business they stand second to none. They are among the foremost packers of sugar-cured meats in our city, and their products are said to be the best by all who use them. They are located on Massachusetts avenue, phone West 345. The management of the Lohrey Packing Company has ever maintained a friendly attitude toward the just cause of labor, and we are pleased to lend them our endorsement. If you want the very best of meat products, you will make no mistake in demanding those of the Lohrey Packing Company from your butcher.

THE CENTER CAFE.

B. J. KLEIN, Prop.

The Center Cafe, located at 2963-2965 Colerain avenue, is one of the best and most up-to-date cafes in our city, one where you are always assured of getting the very best of bar goods, and of being treated in a polite and courteous manner. Their hotel is as good as can be obtained, and their meals can not be surpassed. The proprietor, B. J. Klein, is an affable gentleman, and makes it a part of his business to see that every one who enters his place of business is made to feel at home, and that his wants are satisfied in every respect. He has always been known as a staunch friend and supporter of organized labor, which is shown by the fact that his house is UNION in every respect. The hosts of labor should not overlook Mr. Klein when in his neighborhood, and give him a liberal share of their patronage at all times.

A. C. BAUMANN.

This gentleman conducts a first-class bar and cafe at 813 Sycamore street, where he serves only the very best of bar goods, meals and lunches. His place of business is a favorite among the union men, and he has always been a staunch friend and supporter of organized labor, and makes the boys feel at home at all times. Mr. Baumann is an affable gentleman, treating others with the proper respect on all occasions, and has won a place among the foremost business men of our city through his fair and square business methods. Union men can rely upon him as their friend as a man of business at all times, and he has our hearty endorsement. We are pleased to say a good word for a gentleman so deserving as A. C. Baumann.

S. WEILAND & SONS.

If you want the very best of high-grade clothing, ladies' ready-to-wear, shoes, hats or gents' furnishings, at prices that are sure to be right, and where your patronage is always appreciated, you will make no mistake in going to WEILAND'S, at Sixth and Broadway. They sell at the lowest prices, either for cash or installments. They also make to order women's suits, coats and skirts, and are dealers in furniture, rugs and household goods. S. Weiland & Sons stand high in the business world, and are known to be of sterling worth. Their attitude toward organized labor has ever been friendly, which is shown by the large stock of union-made goods handled by them.

BROADWAY MACHINERY COMPANY.

There is no concern that stands higher in the esteem of the people of our city than does the Broadway Machinery Company. This enviable reputation and position has been won by their honest and fair dealing, and polite and courteous treatment which has been accorded to all with whom they come in contact. In their chosen line of business, they stand second to none. They are dealers in machinery of every description, and their charges are always reasonable. Their service can not be surpassed. The managers have always been staunch friends of unionism, and they have our hearty endorsement. We take pleasure in making favorable mention of them and the company represented by them. The Broadway Machinery Company is located at 238 Broadway.

MART. O'HARA.

One of the fundamental principles of organized labor is to support those who are friendly to unionism. Among the many business men of our city who have always shown a preference for organized labor, none deserve a more favorable mention than does Mart. O'Hara, who conducts a first-class bar and cafe at 200 Broadway, corner Second street. He stands high in the business world, and is known to be of sterling worth. Mr. O'Hara makes it a part of his business to extend courtesy and good treatment to all who enter his place of business, and you are assured of getting the very best bar goods that money can buy at all times. The hosts of labor will do well to remember Mart O'Hara when in his neighborhood, and at all times gives him a liberal share of their patronage, for when in need of friends, you can sure rely upon him to support your cause.

L. HILGEMAN.

If you want the very best of dry goods, notions or furnishings, at prices that are as low as the lowest, and where your patronage is always appreciated, you will make no mistake in going to L. Hilgeman's, located at 1576 Baymiller, corner Liberty street. Everything carried by them is the very best on the market, and their prices are always right. The proprietor makes it a part of her business to extend courtesy and good treatment to all who enter this store, and has won an enviable reputation for fair and square business dealing. The hosts of labor will find her friendly at all times, and we are pleased to recommend L. Hilgeman's to our readers.

VENDOME HOTEL.

The Vendome Hotel, corner Fifth and Broadway, is one of the best places in our city to stop for a night, or to live permanently. They serve the best of meals, and their rooms are as good as can be obtained. At their bar, only the best of bar goods are ever served, and every one who enters this hotel is made to feel at home. The proprietor is a courteous gentleman, treating others with the proper respect at all times. He wishes it understood that he solicits and appreciates the patronage of the working people.

R. TRARBACH.

Those people who have dealings with this gentleman may rest perfectly secure that they will always be treated in an honest and fair manner. In his chosen line of business, Mr. Trarbach stands second to none. His excellent business methods, and polite and courteous treatment of all with whom he comes in contact have won for him a place among the foremost ranks of business men of our city. Mr. Trarbach is a house and sign painter, and a dealer in paints and oils of every description and for every purpose. His goods are the best, and his workmanship can not be surpassed. His prices and charges are always right. His place of business is located at 1432 Main street, phone Canal 1245-L. He is a known friend and supporter of organized labor.

JOS. MOORMAN.

To deal with a concern that is known to conduct its business in an honest, straightforward manner is always a great pleasure, as it gives one the satisfaction of knowing that he or she is being treated fairly on all occasions. Those who have dealings with this gentleman may rest perfectly secure, as they will always be treated in an honest and fair manner. Mr. Moorman stands high among the business men of our city, and has won an enviable reputation for fair and square business methods. He is known to live up to each and every contract that he makes or enters into, and is considered to be of sterling worth. His polite and courteous treatment of all with whom he comes in contact have won for him distinction, a host of friends and a prosperous business.

Mr. Moorman conducts one of Cincinnati's best and most up-to-date groceries, located at 2500 Spring Grove avenue, corner Draper street. He handles only the very best and freshest of groceries, vegetables and other food stuffs, and his prices are as low as can be made consistent with good business principles. His delivery service is par-excellent, and can be depended upon to get your order to you when you want it. It is not necessary to go to Mr. Moorman's to get the best of stuff, as he gives the same attention to phone orders that he would to a personal customer. His phone number is West 1072-L.

Union men and their families will make no mistake in giving Jos. Moorman a liberal share of their patronage at all times, as he has the reputation, backed by his acts, of showing a friendly attitude toward the union man's cause. We are pleased to lend our endorsement to Mr. Moorman, and we do it unhesitatingly.

CALNAN CAFE AND GARDEN.

There is no better place in our city than the Calnan Cafe and Garden to spend an enjoyable evening, either in Summer or Winter. They serve only the very best of meals, and their bar is stocked with the choicest of fine wines, beers and whiskies. Their service can not be surpassed. The proprietor, M. M. Calnan, is an affable gentleman, always treating others in a polite and courteous manner. He stands high in the business world, and is known to be of sterling worth. He has always been known as a staunch friend of the working boys, and we are pleased to lend him our endorsement. Union men will make no mistake in giving the Calnan Cafe and Garden, located at 3517 Reading Road, Avondale, a liberal share of their patronage at all times.

H. C. BOELLEKE.

One of the fundamental principles of organized labor is to support those firms and business men held to be friendly to unionism. Mr. Boelleke has at all times been a staunch friend and supporter of the laboring man's cause, and it is therefore, with pleasure that we make favorable mention of him, and highly recommend him to the patronage of our readers. In his chosen line of business, he stands second to none. Mr. Boelleke conducts a first-class bar and cafe, located at 3508 Reading Road, Avondale, where he serves only the very best and choicest of bar goods and lunches. He serves HAUCK'S BEER exclusively. The hosts of labor are cordially invited to make Boelleke's their headquarters whenever in his vicinity.

GEO. STEIN.

In his chosen line of business, Geo. Stein stands second to none. His excellent business methods, and polite and courteous treatment of all with whom he comes in contact have won for him distinction, a host of friends, and a prosperous business. Mr. Stein is a merchant tailor, located at 1231 Main Street. Every bit of work done by Mr. Stein is guaranteed to give satisfaction in every respect, and clothes made by him always give the wearer a satisfied feeling of being well dressed no matter what the occasion. His service cannot be surpassed, and his prices are always reasonable. In the ranks of labor, Mr. Stein has many friends, as he has always been known as a staunch friend and supporter of the working man's cause. It is with pleasure that we lend him our endorsement, and highly recommend his business.

KUHLMANN HARDWARE COMPANY.

There is no concern in our city that is any fairer to the cause of organized labor than the Kuhlmann Hardware Company, which has been demonstrated through years of dealing with the working people. Anyone having dealings with this concern may rest perfectly secure, as they will always be treated in an honest and fair manner. Their standard of quality is high, and their goods are the best that can be found on the market. Their prices are always right, and the union boys are always given a little the best of it on prices. The Kuhlmann Hardware Co. carry a full line of builders' and general hardware, mechanics' tools, cutlery, and in fact, everything that is to be found in an up-to-date hardware store. The managers are courteous gentlemen, always treating those with whom they come in contact in a polite, respectful manner. The hosts of labor will do well to remember the Kuhlmann Hardware Company when in need of anything in their line, for by so doing, you are not only patronizing an avowed friend of labor, but are assured of getting the best money can buy.

GEORGE HESSLER'S SONS.

To deal with a concern that is known to conduct its business in an honest, straightforward manner is always a great pleasure, as it gives one the satisfaction of knowing that he or she is being treated fairly on all occasions. Those who have had dealings with this concern are all loud in their praises of good treatment received at their hands, and of the high quality of food stuffs handled by them. Geo. Hessler's Sons conduct one of the best and most up-to-date grocery stores in our city, located at 2864 Colerain Avenue. Everything handled by them is the very best obtainable, and their prices are always right. Their delivery service is par-excellent, and they give the promptest attention to all phone orders. The members of this firm make it a part of their business to see that everyone who enters their store is treated in a polite and courteous manner, and have also won an enviable reputation for fair and square business dealings. Their attitude toward organized labor has ever been friendly, and we take pleasure in recommending them to our readers.

(Continued on page 6)

We are the only Custom Tailors in this city who make clothes with the Union Label in them.

Levy & Friedman

809 Vine, opp. Empress Theatre
428 Vine, opp. Arcade

FLOWERS! as a token of love, sympathy and of appreciation
Phone West 2095

JOSEPH BERAN FLORIST

Funeral Work a Specialty
838 Clark Street CINCINNATI, O.

Reiter's Home for Quality

For UNION-MADE Work Shirts, Overalls, Suspenders
1437 MAIN STREET, Next Door to Main Theatre
HENRY REITER, Prop.

WILLIAM F. KRUSE

DEALER IN FINE SHOES
Union Made Shoes
No. 1635 Race St., Cor. Green St. Cincinnati, O.

Hats Furnishings

Robert J. Thuman

Corner Vine and Green Streets
CINCINNATI, O.
Telephone Canal 1178-L

Phone W. 952. Newly Furnished Throughout.
Under New Management

BRIGHTON HOTEL

Restaurant and Cafe
Special Inducements to Street Car Boys
FRED. ABAECHELL, Prop.
Central Ave., opp. Freeman Ave., Cincinnati, O.

ESTABLISHED 1871

GEO. F. WENDEL

STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES

142 and 144 East McMicken Avenue
Phone, Canal 472 CINCINNATI, O.

Union Made Shoes Repairing Done

H. H. Tiettmeyer

THE FOOTWEAR MERCHANT

PHONE WEST 804-X
1033 Freeman Ave. Cincinnati, O.

Phone North 721

JOHN NIPPENBERGER

STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERY and DAILY MEAT MARKET

Corner Hackberry and Dexter Ave.
Fresh Fruits and Vegetables Fish and Game in Season

PATRONIZE YOUR FRIENDS

HEADQUARTERS OF THE Rough Riders Fishing and Outing Club
Hollister Benevolent Association
Starlight Base Ball and Outing Club

JACOB GREINER, Proprietor

Corner Cafe

2401 Vine Street CINCINNATI, O.

A. CASTELLUCCIO

WHOLESALE
Imported and Domestic Groceries

SPAGHETTI A SPECIALTY
Telephone Canal 1743-X 1114 BROADWAY
CINCINNATI, O.

PHONE WEST 1340-Y

CABLE BROS.

Hat Manufacturers

Also Experts in Remodeling

1301 Freeman Ave. Cincinnati, O.